Career Objective

Aspiring Computer Science Engineering student with a strong passion for competitive coding, full stack web development, data structures and algorithms. Seeking a challenging position where I can leverage my skills in innovative problem-solving, web technologies, and technology integration. Eager to contribute to impactful projects, collaborate with a talented team, and continuously learn and adapt to emerging technologies to drive company success and achieve personal growth.

PROJECTS

Online Voting System

Developed an "Online Voting System" project to facilitate secure, efficient, and user-friendly electronic voting. This project leverages Java for robust backend processing, JDBC for seamless database connectivity, and JSP for dynamic web page generation. The system allows users to register, log in, and cast their votes online while ensuring data integrity and security.
Language used: Java

Role based Auth Transaction Manager

The Role-Based Auth Transaction Manager is a web application built with Node.js that provides role-based authentication and transaction management. The application supports both admin and user roles, enabling admins to manage users and transactions, while users can add and view their transactions. The authentication system ensures secure access based on roles, with features like persistent sessions, password hashing, and more
